

I believe that the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. I am physically handicapped such that answering the phone is an extra effort, and I have no discretionary money to spend anyway. Therefore, I want to exclude as many unwanted telemarketing calls as possible.